COMMANDER'S MESSAGE

Cdr John Seaver, SN

We had a great Christmas dinner meeting – it was good to see so many turn out to a new location. Up next in January is our annual election meeting and our main business dinner meeting of the year; I look forward to seeing you there. With Election season upon us, CSPA will move from one of the least experienced Commanders to the polar opposite. I have had a great time and an honor serving as the Commander, but I will enjoy the view from the other end of the table. I am ready for some alternative challenges.

The Ohio RV & Boat Show is coming up January

6th-15th. Volunteers are needed to staff our booth every day, except for Monday and Tuesday, January 9 & 10, when the show is closed. The economy seems to be gaining legs and boat sales are moving in a positive direction so this could be a good show to share our message. Please consider signing up for a shift at the CSPA booth!

EXECUTIVE OFFICER

P/D/C Phil Osborne, JN

We had a very good District 29 Fall Conference at the Findlay Inn last month with Findlay hosting the weekend.

Our November membership meeting was a great success at Wendell's Restaurant. The food was great, we had a good crowd and this is a "must go back to restaurant". The service could not have been better and the management was there to help us.

We had our 2017 rendezvous meeting at headquarters and I am really looking forward to the cruises next summer. There is a cruise for everyone – from the Ohio River to Lake Erie and the North Channel. It should be a good summer for cruising.

Our Christmas Party was a hit at the Morgan House and everything was superb.

At this time of year, we have had our first snow. Just wish we could go boating! I would like to wish everyone a Happy New Year.

"No, your dad hasn't lost his marbles. He just misses the boating season."

Looking for a Great Winter Activity Idea?

Well then, sign up for a Columbus Sail and Power Squadron course to enhance your boating knowledge! Weather begins on January 17th and Sail starts on February 2nd. What a great way to conquer the winter blahs by meeting weekly with like-minded boaters, sharing stories, and learning new things while waiting for the weather to warm and the ice to melt. Registration information can be found in the 2016-2017 Educational Courses section of this month's Galley Gossip.

Cold and snow has arrived, boats are winterized and stored, and trees are decorated. It's winter!

December's Christmas dinner was held at The Morgan House. There was something for everyone, beginning with social hour. The gift shop remained opened exclusively for our group.

After a delicious dinner, we held a Secret Santa gift exchange. There were surprises, laughter, and steals. Lots of steals! Lots of fun!

The next dinner will be on January 5 at The Lakes Golf and Country Club. This will be our elections meeting. The guest speaker is our own Mike Hudson, who will have a presentation on his experiences in the Navy.

Stay warm, stay safe.

The dinner meeting on November 10 at Wendell's in Westerville provided good food at good prices. "Dear President-elect Trump"

By Dick Sorensen, N

Dear Don,

Sorry I couldn't meet up with you when you were in Columbus this week but I had other obligations. Listen, I could use a favor. On your way to 'Making America Great Again' could you stop back and get our lights turned on? Compared to building a 1,300 mile-long wall or choosing your Secretary of State this one should be a slam-dunk.

I hope you don't mind me calling you Don; you can call me Dick. Just figured that two successful businessmen should drop the formalities and just get on with the task at hand. Ok?

Here's our problem. Some 'yaa-hoo' installed a bazillion light fixtures under the I-670 Cap. Only they are never, ever turned on.

Here's the history. Columbus has this really vibrant, urban, edgy neighborhood known as the Short North. It's got over 70 restaurants, bars, shops, galleries, etc. and it's rocking. It was decided that we needed to cover our downtown expressway that separated all those rockin' joints from the Convention Center with a 'cap.' Our convention center brings in lots of out-of-towners and they go crazy in all those bars. It's called the Short North Cap and it's really nice. Cynics' would say it should be nice with the 35 million dollar price tag but that's another story.

Anyway, as I go about running my business empire I drive thru this tunnel a couple of times a day. It's almost always dark. The light fixtures are never working. "How dark is it," you ask? About the same darkness as your chances of winning the presidency were leading up to the November 8th election. Don, I am sure you'll agree that was dark!

And this darkness is not for lack of light fixtures. There must be 200 of them on each side. Some electrical salesman was really, really good. He sold us hundreds. If they were ever turned on Ben Carson could perform neurosurgery under there with a pocket knife. But they are never turned on!

So please drop a dime and call Andrew J. Ginther, our new Mayor, and ask that he turn on the lights. He can be reached at 614/645-1234. While I'm sure he voted for old 'what's her name' Andy's a nice guy and smart. He knows which side his bread is buttered on and I'm sure he'll take your call.

Thanks Don, and hey, you know I owe you one. Should you and Melania need any help with your inaugural parties don't hesitate to call on me. Just don't Twitter my name out there; I don't want to be bothered with all the media attention.

Dick Sorensen is a 'retired' caterer/special events guy who has fed thousands. Not too many of them complained.

Your pal,
Dick
